Happy Retirement

Henry Rehn

Social Studies

I started my teaching career as a substitute teacher. There were very few jobs. I was a substitute teacher for roughly 3 years. During my 3rd year of substitute teaching (1990), I became the Boys Varsity Soccer Coach here at Eisenhower. In the Fall of 1991, I was hired to teach History full-time here at Eisenhower. My first classes were World History and United States History. I am now finishing year 34 at Eisenhower. I have only taught at Eisenhower. With my accumulated Substitute Teaching plus the 4.6 years I bought, the State of Michigan recognizes that I have taught for over 41 years.

My retirement plans include to do a lot of traveling with my wife, attending future professional sporting events, (i.e., Tigers baseball games and next years World Cup), seeing a lot of great movies and TV series that I have missed over the years and reading a lot of great books.

I think I will miss the everyday teaching of lessons to students about great events that have happened in history.

I will not miss getting up at 5:30 am to get to school.

Henry
