Lloyd & Laurie Carr Scholarship

Lloyd & Laurie Carr

The Lloyd & Laurie Carr Scholarship extends an award of $4,500 to two outstanding freshman applicants to the University of Michigan - Ann Arbor. The Lloyd & Laurie Carr Scholarship does consider economic need, (as determined by the Office of Financial Aid at the University of Michigan).

This award was established in 2008 for students who wish to attend the University of Michigan - Ann Arbor. However, they require additional funds to proceed with their dream. President Mary Sue Coleman established a matching fund arrangement that was raised by the Greater Detroit Club members, which allowed the establishment of this scholarship.

This award is named in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Carr. Lloyd Carr served on the Michigan Football coaching staff for 28 years. He was head coach from 1995 to 2007. His teams won 75% of their games and 5 Big Ten Conference Championships along with 6 bowl titles. His 1997 Team won the National Championship, he was voted National Coach of the Year and Charles Woodson was awarded the Heisman Trophy. Coach Carr has received a number of additional national honors, including the Bobby Dodd award. In 2011 he was inducted into the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame and the National Football Hall of Fame. He and his wife Laurie have had a major impact in their support of the C.S. Mott Children's Hospital.

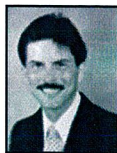

Harold duCharme Scholarship

Harold duCharme

The Harold duCharme Scholarship extends an award of $4,500 to an outstanding freshman applicant to the University of Michigan - Ann Arbor. This award was established in the 1940's in honor of Mr. DuCharme who attended the School of Engineering from 1904-1908. He pursued a career in investments, but continued his engineering interests. He had a strong feeling for the University of Michigan throughout his life. He loved people, travel and the great outdoors.

David J. Hallissey Memorial Scholarship

David J. Hallissey
1954-1985

The David J. Hallissey Memorial Scholarship extends $4,500 awards each year to two outstanding freshman applicants who enroll at the University of Michigan - Ann Arbor. David J. Hallissey received his B.A. from U of M in 1974 & three years later received his law degree. In 1976, while in Law School he was diagnosed with Hodgkin's disease, but completed his education to begin practicing Law. Family and friends select deserving U of M students to perpetuate, in one tangible way, David's achievements.

Jerry & Anne Hanlon Scholarship

Jerry & Anne Hanlon

The Jerry & Anne Hanlon Scholarship extends an award of $4,500 to one outstanding freshman applicant to the University of Michigan - Ann Arbor. The Jerry & Anne Hanlon Scholarship does consider economic need, (as determined by the Office of Financial Aid at the University of Michigan).

This award was established in 2008 for students who wish to attend the University of Michigan - Ann Arbor. However, they require additional funds to proceed with their dream. President Mary Sue Coleman established a matching fund arrangement that was raised by the Greater Detroit Club members, which allowed the establishment of this scholarship.

This award is named in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Hanlon. Coach Jerry Hanlon is a graduate of Miami University (Ohio) where he played under Ara Parseghian. He went into coaching and eventually was a member of Bo Schembechler's staff at Miami. In 1969 he moved with Bo to Michigan. He became a nationally respected Offensive Line coach while developing 19 All-American linemen. In 1992 he retired from active coaching but has continued to be an important part of the Michigan football family. His annual letter "To the Team" the night before the Ohio State game is a part of Michigan Football tradition. Coach Hanlon has been very generous with his support of the University of Michigan Club of Detroit.
