DRAMA 7/8 – B568

7, 8

0.5 credit

This elective allows students to learn the basics of acting and the fundamentals of stagecraft. Students also experience working together in pairs and groups to perform scenes. The communication skills draw on the students' resourcefulness and help build self-confidence. May not repeat course if taken in grade 7.

THEATRE ARTS I (VPAA/OLE) – B950

9

1.0 credit

This course places emphasis on acting as a means of self-expression. Development of vocal techniques, stage presence, body language, and character are the framework of this class. Technical terms dealing with acting and production are introduced, used, and applied to scene study. An awareness of ensemble and its necessity in production are stressed.
